

OCTOBER 5 FULL RECAP

PLAYER OF THE GAME

UNSUNG HERO

JAMES WARMER

James Warmer SHOWED UP TO PLAY!! James lead his team with an incredible 3 touchdowns of of 4 receptions as the DOLPHINS beat the JAGUARS 49-28.

James showcased his quickness and versatility as he weaved easily in and out of the defense as 2 of his touchdowns came as a result of full field runs.

ETHAN MILLER

Despite the team's loss this week, Ethan Miller was a beast for the JAGUARS, raking in a season high record 7 receptions and scoring a remarkable 4 touchdowns.

On the defensive side, Ethan left it all out on the field with yet another personal high, 12 flag pulls which is also a league high for the season. .

DOLPHINS vs. JAGUARS

James Warmer was a force to be reckoned with as he had a year high 4 receptions converted for 3 touchdowns to lead the BILLS over the JAGUARS 49-28. 2 of those touchdowns came after a reception and a full field run, weaving through the defense to score. Add in another season high 5 flag pulls for Warmer and it's easy to see why he was this week's Player of the Game.

Assisting James in the victory were teammates Landen Fitzgerald, Zachary Orłowski, Harrison Swank and JP Truesdell, who each scored a touchdown . Truesdell also showed up big on defense, stopping the JAGUARS with 5 flag pulls.

Meanwhile, despite the loss, Ethan Miller, this weeks Unsung Hero, was not going to make this an easy win for the BILLS as he had a career day with 7 receptions and 4 touchdowns. He also had a league high 12 flag pulls. Trey Bova and Logan Seigel were also defensive standouts with 4 flag pulls each.

BILLS vs. RAVENS

Rough day for the Ravens as they couldn't string together their 16 receptions to come up with a score. Still, every player touched the ball, lead by Lorelei Muscarella with 4 receptions.

Alexander Kurplewski and Matteo Prezioso were the leading scorers for the undefeated BILLS. Ryker Ching'anda started the game off with a first play interception. He would continue his assault later in the game by scoring a touchdown of his own.

Emmanuel Desouza and Tim Kurplewski rounded out the scoring for the BILLS with a touchdown each. DeSouza was also a force on defense with 4 flag pulls along with Preziosos who had a game high 7 flag pulls.

WEEK 2 RESULTS

BILLS 42 (3-0-0) vs RAVENS 0 (0-0-3)

DOLPHINS 49 (2-0-1) vs JAGUARS 28 (1-0-2)