Players of the Week

Player of the Week
Christian Hinkle
Duke

Christian had a great game all around, but it was his offensive play in overtime that won him player of the week. Christian already had 10 points in the game when he went off in OT, scoring 7 points to finish the game with 17 points. Christian's ability to hit shots when his team needed them the most was a big reason for his team being able to make the comeback in this game and win in OT. Aside from scoring, Christian had 4 rebounds and a block in a great all-around performance.

Unsung Hero
Trevion Robinson
USC

Trevion was doing it all in his game as he contributed tremendously on both sides of the ball. On defense, Trevion had 6 rebounds as well as 2 steals and a block. On offense, Trevion finished with 6 points including a three pointer in the third quarter that helped spark an offensive run for his team. Trevion also added 2 assists as he was constantly looking for open teammates and getting them the ball. Trevion's selfless play was a huge factor in his team's victory.
