Dream 16, Aces 9

The second matchup brought us a close one which started off with 6 points from Khloe Loncar of the dream. The Aces got a bucket from Emma Morreale, with a Dream lead 6-2 at the end of the first quarter. It was very defensive in the second quarter as the only points came from the Aces Eleanor Zinteck, but still the Dream kept a 2-point lead, 6-4 at the end of the first half. Both teams were trading baskets in the third quarter, as Eleanor Zinteck dropped in another bucket, Lola Zinteck dropped in a basket herself, and Alessandra Patterson hit a free throw. The Dream got baskets from Dee Luna, Mariah Kreps, and Loncar got herself another one, keeping their lead, 12-9. The Dream played stellar in the fourth quarter, shutting out the Aces not allowing them to score, as Olivia Welka got a bucket and Loncar dropped in another one, securing the win for the Dream 16-9.

Players of the Week

Player of the Week
Clara Gilliland

Clara played a big role in getting her sky team the win as she was able to put in 4 points. Clara added to that by grabbing 2 rebounds and showing great defense on the other side of the ball with 4 steals and a block.

Unsung Hero
Lola Zinteck

Although her Aces came up short, Lola had a great outing Monday afternoon as she was on the boards grabbing 6 rebounds and playing great defense grabbing 3 steals. Lola was also able to put up a big bucket for the Aces.
