

SEPTEMBER 21 FULL RECAP

PLAYER OF THE GAME

UNSUNG HERO

DEREK JUDGE

Derek Judge not only arrived ready to play this week, but he also dazzled with some amazing catches, including one that earned his team 7 points in COLORADO'S 35-28 win over UB.

ADAM FRANCO

Adam Franco demonstrated his seriousness with an impressive diving catch, scoring one of his two touchdowns. His determination was evident on defense as well, where he hustled for four flag pulls, showcasing his perseverance despite the loss to Ohio State.

WEEK 1 RESULTS

COLORADO 35 (1-0-0) vs UB 28 (0-0-1)

OHIO STATE 56 (1-0-0) vs USC 35 (0-0-1)

COLORADO vs. UB

It was all hands on deck for COLORADO as 5 players recorded 2 or more receptions including a game high 5 for Luke Lawson, one that resulted on a goal line break for 7 points.

Gavin Tucker lead a master class for scoring as he threw 21 points onto the scoreboard along with 7 from Liam Philips and 7 from Derek Judge for a total of 35 on the day.

UB put forth a valiant effort lead by Dean Roggow and Elway Driskel, each with 3 receptions and 1 touchdown. Jase Swartz, Emrys Chiodo, and Oliver Andres dominated on offense, each with one TD while Jonah Piorkowski, Mason and Logan Loncar fought hard on defense.

OHIO STATE vs. USC

Mason Shugg and William Cashion made significant contributions on both offense and defense.

Shugg recorded 2 touchdowns and 3 receptions, while also making 3 flag pulls to thwart USC's offensive efforts.

Cashion added 2 touchdowns and 2 flag pulls of his own.

Owen Amato and George Colletta each contributed 2 touchdowns, bringing Ohio State's final score to 56.

USC fought hard, with every player achieving 2 or more receptions, led by Greyson Birch with 9. Adam Franco, the unsung hero of the week, and Joe Belair both scored 2 touchdowns, while Brady Taggart had 2 receptions for 1 touchdown. Despite the 56-35 loss, USC's "Don't quit" attitude made the game feel much closer than the score suggests.

STAT OF THE WEEK: 98% of players recorded at least one reception, highlighting the impressive skill level in the 6-8 grade league.
