

SEPTEMBER 21 FULL RECAP

PLAYER OF THE GAME

UNSUNG HERO

LORELEI MUSCARELLA

This week's PoG award is presented to Lorelei Muscarella. Her incredible speed allowed her to break through the defensive pressure and reach the end zone not just once, but twice.

DYLAN SPENCE

Dylan Spence is this week's unsung hero, showcasing his skills with 3 receptions, 2 touchdowns, 2 remarkable flag pulls, and 2 exciting runs after catching the ball. His contributions helped keep the game close, with the Dolphins ultimately falling 49-42.

WEEK 1 RESULTS

BILLS 49 (1-0-0) vs DOLPHINS 42 (0-0-1)

RAVENS 49 (1-0-0) vs JAGUARS 28 (0-0-1)

BILLS vs. DOLPHINS

In the first half, six different players found the end zone, with Matteo Prezioso, Ryker Ching'anda, and Timothy Kurplewski scoring for the BILLS, while James Warner, Alexander Lawson, and Dylan Spence broke the goal line for the DOLPHINS.

Zachary Orlowski thwarted one of the BILLS' drives with an interception, leading to a 21-21 tie at halftime.

Emmanuel Desouza kicked off the second half with a touchdown and made it challenging for the DOLPHINS to take the lead by executing three impressive flag pulls on defense.

The BILLS' scoring was completed by Ryan Tomaszewski (1) and Timothy Kurplewski (2), while Landen Fitzgerald added 7 points for the DOLPHINS in their near miss to regain the lead.

RAVENS vs. JAGUARS

This week's Player of the Game, Lorelei Muscarella, shone brightly in Week 1 with 3 receptions, two of which she sprinted into the end zone after impressive 30+ yard runs.

Roman Piskor also made a significant impact, leading his team with 3 receptions that resulted in 2 touchdowns, keeping the JAGUARS competitive.

Bryce Willats and Ethan Miller each contributed with 1 reception to help round out the JAGUARS' scoring.

On the other side, Thomas Wurl not only made a mood-shifting interception but also added 14 points, while his teammates Julian Mohr, Jackson Lockhart, and Miles Cress each contributed TD's of their own to secure the victory for the RAVENS

STAT OF THE WEEK: 98% of players recorded at least one reception, highlighting the impressive skill level in the 3-5 grade league.
