

SEPTEMBER 28 FULL RECAP

PLAYER OF THE GAME

UNsung HERO

BRADY TAGGART

Brady Taggart was a force to be reckoned with as he lead USC to a 70 - 63 victory over COLORADO.

Offensively, Taggart had 3 receptions and 3 TD's. Defensively, Taggart added 3 flag pulls to stifle COLORADO'S defense.

ELWAY DRISKEL

Elway Driskel scored a trio of touchdowns in UB's 42-28 loss over OHIO STATE.

Elway was impressive with his runs after his catches as he blazed past the defense, protecting his flag along the way,

COLORADO vs. USC

It was a battle fought in the air as a total of 37 completions were thrown during USC's 70-53 victory over COLORADO.

Brady Taggart, our Player of the Week, and Adam Franko combined for 3 touchdowns each, while Caleb Zacher added 2 of his own to lead USC in scoring. Bella Truesdell had a remarkable run after the catch to score her first TD of the season followed by Greyson Birch finding the endzone for a TD.

Evan Kinney did everything in his power to keep COLORADO competitive by grabbing 3 remarkable catches for touchdowns. Luke Lawson added 14 to the scoreboard while Derek Judge, Liam Philips, and Gavin Tucker each scored 1 TD.

Ava Riisi did her best to contain USC with 3 hard earned flag pulls.

OHIO STATE vs. UB

In contrast to the COLORADO vs USC game, OHIO ST. and UB decided to do most of their damage to one another on the ground.

UB had a total of 12 receptions, lead by Dean Roggow, and Benjamin Burgasser, each with 4 and Elway Driskel, this week's Unsung Hero, and Griffin Giglio each had 3. Elway converted his receptions into 3 touchdowns. All players recorded 20 or more yards after each reception as they took their attack to the ground.

Ohio State had 13 receptions, and again we saw each reception earn 20 or more yards running after the catch. Liam Hess lead the scoring for Ohio State with 2 touchdowns and Ethan Barclay, George Colletta, and Mason Shugg each added one TD to their stats.

STAT OF THE WEEK: A record # of receptions, 37, was recorded in the game between COLORADO and USC.
