Aces 22, Dream 18

After a close 1-point loss last week, the Aces went out this week with vengeance and were able to hold onto this one in a thriller. The Dream started out hot as they had 4 different scorers in the first quarter, with baskets coming from Olivia Welka, Dee Luna, Mariah Kreps, and Khloe Loncar had 4 points in the quarter. The Aces got themselves two baskets from Eleanor Zinteck and Olive Barrett which concluded the quarter with a Dream lead 10-4. The Aces started to get going as Alessandra Patterson went out in the second quarter dropping 6 points and Kayleigh Lofft added a bucket while their defense was able to figure it out only holding the Dream to 4 points which were buckets from Carly Miller and Kilee Piorkowski which deducted the Dream lead by only 2 points, 14-12. This was the Aces time to take over as that's just what they did, as Lola Zinteck got herself 2 points, and both Zinteck and Barrett added another bucket. Loncar had the Dreams only two points in the quarter, and the Aces took the lead after the third quarter 18-16. Loncar got another bucket, but Barrett dropped in 4 points and got 4 rebounds in the quarter, as it was enough to secure the win for the Aces, 22-18.

Players of the Week

Player of the Week
Megan Reynolds
Liberty

Unsung Hero
Olive Barrett
Aces

Megan had an outstanding performance where she finished with a league high of 14 points. Megan was showing relentless effort and was doing everything she could to get the Liberty on top by adding 11 rebounds and 9 steals, as she came up 1 steal short of a triple double, which would've went down in rec history.

Olive was the real hero in the Aces first win of season. Olive finished the game with 8 points, 8 rebounds, an assist and a steal, but in the fourth quarter when they were only up by 2 points, Olive got all the Aces 4 points and added 4 rebounds with it in the quarter where it was enough for the Aces to beat the Dream 22-18.
